Slavery Agitation.

The Administration press of the North are laboring very zealously in trying to prove that the principal stock in trade of the Republican party is the agitation of the slavery question. They must regard their readers as persons extremely short-sighted. This sort of subtlety may sound pleasant to old "Buck's" ears, but very much question whether it has a clear ring to the honest, hard-fisted, sons of toil, of the North. While the farmer has in view only the one leading idea of "protecting the rights of the South," we imagine that the larger majority of the North are those who have a distinct knowledge of their own rights; not as lords and slaveholders, but as "holders of wood and drawers of water," or to use a southern phrase, "mud sills of society."

One of the most enthusiastic campaigns that has occurred for years, has just been closed in Virginia, and every person, at all acquainted with "political events," well knows that the opposition were met with no other argument than the negro. In Kentucky the political battle is being carried on in very much the same manner. The election takes place in August, and the leading topic for discussion is slavery. That patriotic bird, "the American Eagle," and the "rights of adopted citizens," are entirely lost sight of in the political arena. "Has Congress power to protect slavery in the territories?" is the text for both parties, and the great trouble seems to be in either establishing their "soundness on the ground." The Democracy of Kentucky assert that the Opposition are passing the weapons of assault upon their institutions into the hands of northern men, and denounce them as abolitionists, and advocates of treason. They view the peculiar institution of the south as inseparable, and claim for it "protection by the constitution, the Bible, and the experience of mankind." They go further—They justify the slave-trade as beneficial not only to the African removed, but also to the African remaining in his native country. "Southern institutions are beneficial," and the idea of localizing slavery is treason. "Slavery has a constitutional right to extend to the new territories and should be protected"—so say the apologists of slavery, the Democracy. With them it is not a question of principle, but of policy; not of the greatest amount of good to a free people, but of pecuniary interest.

Therefore they are really the only party that make it a staple business to agitate the slavery question.

Pike's Peak—Southern Policy.

From the most reliable information, concerning the Pike's Peak mania, we are led to believe that a large number of politicians of the ultra southern or Calhoun school have done no less than speculate in fanning the flame of the extraordinary "gold fever" which a short time ago so fiercely in the East and West. Acting on the knowledge that a wave of population must flow from the East with each returning spring, they took advantage of it and the reckless spirit of western speculation in Kansas to prevent a divergence of the "northern swarm" into the mineral regions of the South. This opinion received a certain degree of confirmation from the fact that no emigration is flowing from the South to Pike's Peak. Their attention is directed toward Arizona, New Mexico, and the Indian Territory; and it is evident that the South means to do all she can to divert northern immigration from these more southern countries, in order that she may more successfully contend for the dominancy of her institutions there than she did in Kansas. We hope that a matter so important may not be lost sight of—that the tide of northern and eastern emigration may diverge into the rich grazing lands of the Indian Territories, and into the valley of Arizona and New Mexico. It is not fair that southern capitalists, with their slave labor should usurp all the best and pleasant portions of the new Territories, while the free laborers of the North are forced to take the most sterile, and as far as climate is concerned, most inhospitable portions. We have no doubt but that the drama lately enacted in Kansas will be re-enacted in Arizona, New Mexico, Western Texas and the Indian Territory. In that case the freemen of the north will have to prepare for another crusade, in order to open more land to freedom and free labor.

Kansas Constitutional Convention.

The Republicans of Kansas have carried a majority of the Delegates to the Constitutional Convention. The election was sharply contested, and the first reports, from the river counties, were favorable to the Democracy, but full reports show a majority of three for the Republicans.

Louis Kossuth.

This distinguished personage addressed a large assembly at Manchester, England a few days ago, in which he asserted that the present English policy of England would prove suicidal; and declared his intention to go to Hungary and fight for her independence.

Popular Sovereignty.

According to the latest domestic intelligence, the sovereignty of the South, the sovereignty of the Federal Courts over the rights of citizens of the free states and the sovereignty of slavery and slave labor over the local laws of the states and territories. While the South openly declares it to be the "right, coupled with the duty," of Congress to enact a slave code for the territories, their double-faced allies at the north say the people of a territory "can manage their institutions in their own way," subject to the Constitution, which (interpreted by the Free Scott decision, the key to democratic orthodoxy) means that they have no power over slavery whatever. So democratic popular sovereignty means not the sovereignty of the people, but the sovereignty of slavery over the people. The only democratic principles at all definable are Cuba, the revival of the slave trade and a slave code for the territories.

How Our Ticket is Received.

Never before has our ticket been hailed with such hearty, enthusiastic response as never before we entered a political campaign, with such cheering prospects of a glorious victory. From one end of the State to the other come up the strongest assurances, that the ticket and platform are the best that could possibly have been made and that they will meet a hearty endorsement from a large majority of the people of the State, at the polls in October. Even our enemies are compelled to speak in favorable terms of the men on our ticket. They are all tried men—men of honesty and capacity and men, whom the people will delight to honor. It affords us pleasure to present so unexceptionable a ticket to the Republicans of Seneca County.

How the Democracy love the Foreigners.

The following reply has been sent by Secretary Cass, in answer to a letter addressed him by an adopted American citizen:

DEPARTMENT OF STATE, Washington, May 15, 1859.

To Mr. F. L. Rogers, Memphis, Tenn.

Sir—Your letter of the 13th inst. has been received. In reply I have to state that it is understood that the French Government claims military service from all natives of France who may be found within its jurisdiction. Your naturalization in this country will not exempt you from that claim if you should voluntarily repair thither.

I am, Sir, your obedient servant,

LEWIS CASS.

Where We Stand.

In order to refute the slanderous charges of the locofoco press, with regard to the position of the Republicans of Ohio on the Massachusetts two years amendment, we reproduce the two following resolutions from our platform, recently adopted at Columbus, which speak for themselves:

1. We claim for all citizens, native and naturalized, liberty of conscience, equal rights of suffrage, and the free exercise of the right of suffrage, we favor whatever legislative or administrative reforms may be necessary to protect these rights, and guard their infringement or abuse; and we oppose any subordination whatever, of the right of naturalization, now secured by our laws, to any consideration of race between native and naturalized citizens, whether by amendment of a State constitution or otherwise; and we condemn equally such discrimination, whenever and wherever made, whether made by South Carolina or any other State.

2. That we are in favor of granting to actual settlers one hundred and sixty acres of the public lands free of charge, and we do most unqualifiedly condemn the course of the proslavery Democracy in Congress, in opposing and defeating in the United States Senate, the Homestead Bill, which was designed to secure free homes for the poor man, whether of native or foreign birth.

Slaves as Persons and Property.

The Richmond Enquirer is jubilant over the recent decision of Chief Justice Taney, in the case of the slave Amy, as it considers that the most authoritative judicial voice in the Union has decided "on the right and duty of Congress to protect slave persons and slave property." It says—"a review of the decision, we discover the assertion of the following great principles of doctrine:"

1st. That slaves are recognized by the Constitution of the United States in the character of persons.

2d. That slaves are represented in Congress as persons.

3d. That as persons, they are, in many instances at least, subject to certain liabilities, and invested with the rights corresponding to those liabilities, in the same way that other persons are.

4th. That among those liabilities are those which render them amenable to law for the commission of crimes, and liable to punishment for crimes and misdemeanors; and among these rights is the right of legal protection against personal injury.

5th. That the Constitution of the United States also recognizes slaves as property.

6th. As property, the rights of the owner are entitled to the protection of the law; i. e., the laws of the United States, enacted by Congress.

7th. The New York Journal of Commerce admits that "in all our calculations for the next Presidential campaign, we may as well assume that the twenty-seven electoral votes of Pennsylvania are mortgaged to the Republicans."

8th. At Lyons, Ga., Brown Co., On Joseph Bartley, a grain speculator and pork packer, was arrested for shooting a woman named Eliza Wetzel, who lived with him.

Arrival of the Steamer Europa.

NEW YORK, June 14.

The steamer Europa has arrived at New York with Liverpool dates to the 4th inst.

The advice from Italy confirm the capture of Palermo by the Sardinians. The King, Victor Emmanuel, commanded in person and exhibited the greatest gallantry. The Austrians were endeavoring to retake Palermo, but were repulsed after a sanguinary encounter. The Sardinians report that they captured 1000 prisoners and eight guns.

The latest dispatch from Turin report the Austrians in full retreat across the Ticino into Lombardy. The report received by previous arrivals that Gen. Garibaldi had met with a repulse by a superior Austrian force is confirmed, but it now appears that he was successful in re-entering Como.

From the Star of War.—The Austrian efforts to retake Palermo are described to have been very sanguinary. At one time the Sardinian troops were out-dranked on the right, when the Zouaves came to the rescue and repulsed the Austrians. The Austrian version of the battle has not been received. The Austrians had retreated from Bobbio.

A special telegram to the London Daily News, dated Turin, Friday, June 14, says the Austrians were in full retreat across the Ticino. The French headquarters were at Verceil. Garibaldi had been driving the Austrians back to the Austrian troops under Gen. Urban, who re-took Varese; but a telegraphic dispatch received via Turin states that Gen. Garibaldi, gathering reinforcements, returned and surprised the Austrians and re-captured Varese, and subsequently re-occupied Como triumphantly.

Gen. Garibaldi had occupied Novara. The insurance in Lombardy was spreading rapidly.

SARDINIAN BULLETIN, Turin, May 31. A fresh victory has been gained by our troops. At 7 o'clock this morning a force of 25,000 Austrians endeavored to re-take Palermo. The King of Sardinia commanding the fourth division in person, and Gen. Cialdini, at the head of the third division of Zouaves, repulsed the attack for a considerable space, then having successfully assumed the offensive, pursued the enemy, taking a thousand prisoners and capturing eight guns, five of which were obtained by the Zouaves. Five hundred Austrians were drowned in a canal during the fight. Another fight took place at Confindenza, in the province of Zouline, in which the enemy were repulsed by the division under Gen. Furi, of the first corps of the French army, after two hours' conflict. Last night a picket of enemy endeavoring to pass the Po at Cerverenza, but they were repulsed by the inhabitants of that village. The Austrians have evacuated Vercelli in the province of Bobbio.

Latest from the Gold Region—More Hungarians.

St. Louis, June 14.—Mr. Swinburn, agent of the Smoot and Russell Co., arrived here from Leavenworth this morning, with $6000 of Pike's Peak gold. Swinburn will proceed immediately to New York to test the quality and value of the gold. He says that a much larger quantity of dust might have been brought in, but the miners demand $30 per ounce which is considered by the purchasers exorbitant.

The Leavenworth Times furnishes glowing accounts of the mines.—"During four weeks since considered worthless, are now commanding $50,000 to $100,000. At Gregory a claim sold for $21,000, and several other claims in the same lead changed hands at from $800 to $7,000.

The snow had disappeared from the mountains and prospecting was being vigorously conducted. New rich lead veins are constantly discovered. At Gregory diggings miners were making $25 each per day. Arizona seems the richest country on large, and all push immediately for the mountains. Heavy clouds of dust, good, and spirits of the miners jubilant.

Horace Greely was expected at Denver City the day after the train left.

Flood in the Mississippi—Great Destruction of Property.

CHICAGO, June 8.—From the St. Paul papers of Saturday and Sunday we learn that that city and other towns, above and below, have suffered seriously by the flood from the Upper Mississippi. Much damage was done to property in the warehouses on the levee at St. Paul. Brooklyn, opposite, was entirely submerged. The inhabitants were compelled to abandon their dwellings on account of the general inundation.

At St. Anthony the damage to property was immense, several hundred thousand dollars' worth of goods, and the millage of logs, belonging to saw mills along the river were swept away, and the millage greatly damaged.

The upper bridge, which cost $30,000, was swept away. The lower bridge which was built at a cost of $60,000, was greatly damaged.

Several hundred quarters along the Upper Mississippi, state that nearly all the bridges across streams are gone. The river is higher than it has been for a number of years.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—The Secretary of the Treasury has given notice that sealed proposals will be received until the 20th inst., for the issue of any portion or the whole of $5,000,000 in Treasury notes, redeemable for gold coins of the United States, under the authority of the Act of Congress of 1857 and 1859, the interest not to exceed six per cent. per annum.

The receipts of the Treasury for the week ending Monday last, amounted to $263,000; drafts issued, $1,218,000. The amount subject to draft is $3,774,000.

Stenograph Explosion—Eight Lives Lost.

AGUSTA, Ga., June 10.—The steamer John Lawton exploded last night, when near Savannah, killing eight persons, including the captain, John S. Martin, a passenger, and a man named Gotsy, of Barnwell, and others. A number were also killed and wounded, some it is feared fatally.

The steamer is a total loss.

Ohio White Sulphur Springs.

A grander time than was had at the opening of the White Sulphur Springs, Ohio, was witnessed here on Tuesday. The people don't often transpire. The State of Ohio was here in a body, Governor Chase and several of the State officers, and other distinguished persons from different parts of the State, and from Eastern and Western cities. Notwithstanding the large number of guests present, amounting to from 1000 to 1200, all were handsomely cared for. The ball was brilliant, and lasted nearly the whole night. The affair in every particular was a decided success.—San Register.
